ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

In the product liability action entitled Grant v. Becton Dickinson & Co., et al. (Case No. 98CVB07-05616, in the Court of Common Pleas, Franklin County, Ohio), the Court filed a decision on July 17, 2002 under Ohio procedural law granting plaintiff's motion for class certification "subject to any necessary alteration, modification, or amendment pursuant to Ohio Civ. R. 23." Under the Court's decision, the certified class relates to persons located in the State of Ohio who sustained accidental needlesticks with certain products but did not contract any disease.

The Company vigorously denies that the claims in the case have any merit and will continue to oppose class action certification by promptly filing an appeal of the Court's decision with the Ohio Court of Appeals for the 10th Appellate Judicial District. Class certification of similar claims has been denied in two other states (Texas and Illinois). Three other states (California, New Jersey and Pennsylvania) have dismissed similar claims for having no merit.
